Personal statement

I love Highland Park and would want all stakeholders to benefit equally from the booming economy and increase investment in infrastructure. The new residents and the old ones deserve an equal share of the neighborhood resources. I welcome improvements to Highland Park as long as it benefits all of us. I think housing is an issue that needs to be address and we need to work together to find sensible solutions that can generate more housing at an affordable price. I am also a new father and safety in the neighborhood is the most important issue for me followed closely by education. We need to have more resources allocated by the city to improve safety and improve education in the neighborhood.

I am a Program Specialist and Addictions Counselor at Children's Hospital. I've worked towards building the linkage to youth suffering from overdoses and ingestions in the Emergency Room. Because of my organization and determination we were issued a 5 million dollar grant to assist the Dr.'s in consultations with our program. I am a resourceful team member that thinks outside of the box. I love to find deficits and problem solve to fix, correct, and resolve for the program. I am eager to build communities and empower POC to access the care and assistance they need to thrive. It is my life's mission to evoke social change and wellness to my community.
